SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE (West Bengal): Sir, I have a problem here on this particular ...(Interruptions)... Sir, I have a question. These are Standing Committee's recommendations which are being given. One of the major issues in this industry is, people are not getting salaries. He is not getting money from the Finance Ministry. So, I would like to know what are the Standing Committee's recommendations. I mean, just laying a statement of the recommendations of the Standing Committee ...(Interruptions)...

SHRI JAIRAM RAMESH (Andhra Pradesh): Sir, I regret to say that in spite of our repeated instructions the format for presentation of these reports is not being followed. It is impossible for us to know what the original Standing Committee is and what the Government proposes ...(Intenvptions)... Please insist on the format. ...(Interruptions)... You have changed the formats. ...(Interruptions)...

SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: Otherwise, it has got no value. ...(Interruptions)...

MR. CHAIRMAN: I think, no Member will have any complaint in the next session. ...(Interruptions)...

SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: No; Sir. I have a serious question on this issue. On the status of implementation, what are the Standing Committee's recommendations? I know, Sir,...

MR. CHAIRMAN: I agree with you. ...(Interruptions)...

SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: i am telling you, Sir, the status of implementation is this that the Ministry is not getting money to give salaries to its employees.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I agree with you.

SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: Sir, where is the Finance Minister? ...(Interruptions)...

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Sir, he is perfectly right. ...(interruptions)... The Ministry ...(Intenvptions)... should get more funds because lot of public sector undertakings are reviving and they have to go on profit ...(Interruptions)...

SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: Employees are not getting salaries. ...(Interruptions)...
